

How we maintain your privacy A guide for Children and Young People

Information will only be given to people who need to know.

We will not necessarily tell people that you are “in care”

We will keep your information safe

We will talk to you about why we need to share information and get your consent

Our policies and procedures will respect your rights

We will make sure that staff understand your privacy